Page 57, paragraph 3, line 3: The date June 18, 1954, should be July 18, 1954.

Page 149, paragraph 2, lines 2-3, setting out that 25X1
"there are probably about 250 US Communists and sympathizers resident in Mexico": Your attention is directed to our memorandum dated June 12, 1956, at Washington, D. C., entitled "American Communist Group in Mexico," which on page 8, paragraph 1, reflects that, according to information received from three sources who have furnished reliable information in the past, the "hard core" of the American Communist Group in Mexico is estimated to consist of from 100 to 125 persons. It is suggested that this information be substituted for the above-quoted sentence.

Page 151, paragraph 1, lines 7-8: The sentence beginning "she was reportedly" was taken from the Security Files of the U.S. Embassy in Mexico City and it is, therefore, suggested that you consult with the Department of State concerning this item. *See
